- 05/2018 Newton upon Rawcliffe Village Green Councillor Jane Hemmingway reported that there was general concern in the village with the continuing state of* the village green. After discussion it was decided to invite members of the council to put forward ideas which may solve the problem of residents and visitors using the green as a car park. Ideas should be submitted to the parish clerk and a public meeting arranged in which a member of Ryedale District Council would be invited to attend.

06/2018 Correspondence & Matters to report from the Clerk

The clerk had received two planning applications from the NYMNPA, one for pollution-reducing measures at Taylor Hill Farm at Stape (NYM/2018/0018/FL) which had been fully supported by the Environment Officer and the second for a non-material amendment to planning approval NYM/2017/0122/FL at Pickering Moor Farm at Stape. After discussion with members of the planning team it had been decided that no visits were necessary and it was RESOLVED that it was unnecessary to offer any comments on these applications to the NYMNPA.
